

Margene and I went on twelve cruises, but none topped the first. Justin turned eighteen on that trip, and all of us had an absolute blast. The smiles in these pictures of Justin and Jeff are a perfect visual metaphor for the entire enchanting week. It was the greatest vacation we ever had. See more pictures of our first cruise on the next three pages.

