

We had many fun vacations on Hilton Head Island, but for some reason never took many pictures. Shown below are Margene looking beautiful as always, and Jeff rinsing sand off his feet. We usually stayed at Palmetto Dunes, and never did much beyond just relaxing, eating seafood and enjoying the coastal atmosphere. Margene's favorite Hilton Head vacation was the year Justin and Jeff drove down for the tail end of the week. She was so excited to have them there with us. What a loving mother she was.
